ASEAN IN TODAY’S WORLD 2020

22 February - 5 March 2020
University of Malaya,
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

AsTW Program
AsTW is a two-week international program with the strong support from ASEAN Secretariat and ASEAN University Network, focusing on ASEAN and East Asia, designed for university students from around the world. Co-organized by Kyushu University and University of Malaya in cooperation with Ateneo de Manila University, Mahidol University, Vietnam National University, Hanoi & Fukuoka Women’s University

Program Fee
JPY 159,200
(Approximately USD 1400 - 1500)

Closing Date
27 October 2019

ASEAN Studies Courses (AS) - 2 credits
Choose one of the following courses:
• Current Affairs of ASEAN and East Asia; or
• Food and Environmental Issues in Asia; or
• Multi-culturalism in Asia

Asian Language & Culture (ALC) - 2 credits
Choose one of the following courses:
• Basic Malaysian Language & Culture (for Beginners); or
• Basic Japanese Language & Culture (for Beginners); or
• English as a Communication Tool in the ASEAN context

Field Trip & Homestay
• Visit to places in the city
• An overnight trip to the historic state of Melaka; and
• Trips to various scenic traditional and historical sites in Malaysia

Medium of Instruction - English

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION
Please send all correspondences regarding admission to:

Applications from Non-ASEAN countries
AsTW Office
International Student Exchange Division
Kyushu University
744 Motooka Nishi-ku Fukuoka 819 -0395, Japan

Email : astw-program@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp
Tel : +81-92-802-2283
Website : http://www.isc.kyushu-u.ac.jp/astw/

Applications from ASEAN countries
Mr. Adi Yusran bin Mohamad Radzi
Short Term Program Coordinator
International StudentCentre (ISC)
Level 1, Block G, Perdanasiswa Complex
University of Malaya, 50603 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Email : adiyusran@um.edu.my
Tel : +603-7967 7712
Website : http://isc.um.edu.my

Supported by:  Co-organized by:  In cooperation with: