

APRU Virtual Student Exchange Program Academic Courses Season 2 Application is now open

Don't miss the chance for your own international experience!

The Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU) runs an online exchange program called "Virtual Student Exchange Program (VSE)". VSE academic courses in a range of disciplines offered by APRU member universities are free of charge to all APRU member university students, including Kyushu University.

APRU is now accepting applications for Season 2. If you are interested in participating VSE, please feel free to apply.

【Eligibility】

- ① Undergraduate students enrolled full-time at Kyushu University.
- ② Meet all academic requirements set by each course offering university.

【Schedule for Season 2】

For regular-term courses with starting dates from January to July, 2024.

【Credits】

Most academic courses offered through VSE are credit bearing (some exceptions apply).

【Cost】

Free of Charge. However, a material fee or other related costs may apply depending on the course.

Scan QR code to get more information

Or click the link below

https://bit.ly/apru_vseinforEN